SESSION REPORT

Campus Calling – POSH Awareness Workshop on the occasion of International Human Rights Day

Organized by Internal Committee and IQAC, GNITC, jointly organized with

National Commission for Women (NCW) and Yuvamanthan

Venue: Shaheed Bhagat Singh Auditorium, GNITC, Hyderabad (T.S.)

The Campus Calling – POSH Awareness Workshop was organized under the initiative of the National Commission for Women, in collaboration with Yuvamanthan, at Guru Nanak Institutions Technical Campus, Hyderabad (Telangana) in association with IQAC. The session aimed to enhance awareness among students and teaching-nonteaching staff regarding the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Act, gender sensitivity, safety measures, and women empowerment policies.

The Internal Committee in collaboration with IQAC, GNITC, jointly organized with National Commission for Women (NCW) and UGC Saksham Yuvamanthan Campus Calling program on 10-12-2025 at 2pm to 4pm in Shaheed Bhagat Singh auditorium, GNITC on the occasion of International Human Rights Day.

In this session Dr. Geeta Tripathi, Presiding officer of Internal Committee, welcomed the gathering. She presented a session on awareness about POSH, NCW and Yuvamanthan. Dr. Sandeep Patil, Dean IQAC, Dr. Rishi Sayal, Associate Director and Dr. S. Sreenatha Reddy, Director were guests for the event. They addressed the gathering mentioning the importance and seriousness of the Internal Committee and POSH Act. The workshop highlighted the importance of creating respectful and safe workspaces, understanding legal frameworks, recognizing inappropriate behaviour, and the procedures for reporting and redressal. Students also gained insights into government schemes promoting women empowerment and their real-world applicability.
