Name of the activity : Poster Presentation of Innovations in various Engineering Domains

Platform : Offline

Date of event : 29-12-2023 & 30-12-2023

Overall report of the activity:

The Department of Computer Science & Engineering at Guru Nanak Institution Technical Campus organized Calendar activity: Mentoring Event: Poster Presentation of Innovations as part of Institution's Innovation Council 6.0 (IIC6.0). The department organized a calendar event on topic "Poster Presentation in various domains of Engineering & Technology" on 29-12-2023 in which 20 teams registered from different departments. Prizes for winners distributed on 30-12-2023.

Valedictory programme was organized by the department of CSE at 10.30am in the CS108 (CSE block). On this occasion Director Dr. K. Venkata Rao, HOD Dr. J. Rajeshwar graced the dais. Dr. K. Venkata Rao, Director motivated students to participate in more and more such activities and informed students that participation is more important than winning. Dr. J. Rajeshwar, HOD, CSE inspired students by informing that more and more activities are going to be organized by the department in coming semesters for enhancing knowledge.

Prof. V. Devasekhar – Judge for the event explained students about “how to prepare posters as per the topic and present their poster in a more elaborative way”. Another judge of the event Dr. A. Ravi encouraged students to participate in NPTEL courses to gain more knowledge in particular subject. He also stressed on participation in various inter colleges events.

. Prizes distributed to the students on this occasion by the dignitaries on the dais.
